SIXTH PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY CONCERT

Alma Gluck, as Soloist, Gives Mozart Recitative and Pussian Songs.

FINE ORCHESTRAL NUMBERS

The Philharmonic Society gave its win regular subscription concert at Caregie Hall last evening. Alma Gluck was the soloist. She was heard recitative and aria "Crudele Mio Bene!" from Mozart's "Don " and later in a group of Rus-Rachmaninoff's "Peasant the "Chanson Indone" and Shepherd Leht" by Rimsky-Korsakoff d Lent by Rdinsky-Korsakon, make singing afforded much de-ough it must be said that its as infrequently impaired by some ss in good tone quality. The strain numbers were Dvorak's overture, Brahms's fourth symbolic symphonic poem "Tasso" of Bachica "Carrayal Romais".

Berlioz's "Carneval Romain"

t, but with less finish. The read-the symphony by Mr. Stransky men was one conscientious in by purpose and it received much

ALBERT SPALDING PLAYS.

Violinist Heard at Acolian Hall With Andre Benoist.

Spaiding, the American violin-sted by Andre Benoist, gave the of two violin chamber muste t number in the programme Alden Carpenter's sonata in o and violin. It was followed for plane and violin. It was followed Bach's suite in E major for violin naccompanied. Three pieces for plane nd violin came next in the list, two ro-A minor and in A major, n and "Rondo Brilliant," by and as a closing group four sers, "Andantino Quietoso" o nek, "Scherzo Glocoso" and by Mr. Spalding himself, and rangement of the XXIV, "Ca-

reading from the two players armin and beauty of tone and fine balwhile a rich and sweeping style

Mr. Spaiding played the Bach suite with a delightful sympathy. Its movements—as entitled, "Prelude," "Loure," "Gavotte," "Two Minuets," "Bource" and "digue"—received a finely adapted characterization of style through his wonted skill and taste, and the performance so pleased the audience that he was obliged to acknowledge some five way received to the platform at its close. six recalls to the platform at its close.

PAUL DRAPER'S RECITAL.

First of Lieder Programmes at Little Theatre.

Paul Draper, tenor, gave the first of e lieder recitals yesterday afternoon he Little Theatre. The programme devoted to Schubert's "Die schoene Muellerin," and it served well in con-tent, while following later musical de-velopment in song, for the two coming oussorgski respectively. where he falls deeply in love with the miller's daughter. The maiden yields to his woolng, but she proves fickle. A cay forester, who comes in his green the control of the control of the control of the cast of the control of the cast form, steals away her affections. miller is heartbroken and drowns himself in the brook, which sings a lullaby over esting place." the various styles of musical beauty and in the familiar cycle. With a voice that lacks much in musical quality, he showed no little skill in its use. His control of breath was good and his phrasing excellent. As is his wont, he sang with a general taste in interpretation such as rarely failed to claim genuinterest, and the impression left by is work was one of pleasure.

Would Have One Central Employ-

America, the Actors Equity Association proposes that either the united managers ciation or the Actors Fund organize ne central theatrical agency for the emand that this agency use and present niform and equitable form of contract. further proposes that the agency, if med, shall turn over its net profits to Actors Fund.

result of such an arrangement be to cut down seriously the busias of many theatrical agencies, includng those of the Shuberts and Klaw & Flanger, though it is not aimed at them. fficers and council of the actors' associa-

WILL CLOSE "SECRET STRINGS." Film Version of "Hypocrites" to Follow Play at Longacre.

H. H. Frazee, producer of "Secret ounced his intention last night of end-ing the engagement of the play to-mor-ow night. It will be reconstructed for ssible tour through the West.

replace the attraction the Long-Theatre has been remed to the ter, Miss Gladys Fries. ount Pictures Corporation, which give a film version of Boswort's give a dinner to-night at Sherry's, followed by a theatre party, for their nice. Miss for two and a half weeks. Prices been reduced to a $1 scale.

There be matinees every day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernesto G. Fabort will by Gardiner Symons, Sintable perhaps for the drop curtain of a theatre, and a more discreet snow scene by Gustave Wiegand, and Indiscapes by Ruger Donoho, A. L. Groil, Arthur Hoeber, R. W. Van Boshemster and Mrs. William H. Hulburt will give a kerck and William M. Coffin.

REICHER HAS THEATRE PLAN. Would Create Independent Stage for

Presenting Serious Plays. anuel Reicher, with his daughter, ig Reicher, is appealing to theatre-to subscribe to a plan for the creaan independent stage in New February.

Chesterton to Speak To-night.

MISS MAY WEDS IN BERLIN.

Washington Young Woman Is Bride of German Lieutenant.

BERLIN, via The Hague and Londo In the course of the text in the cycle of twenty songs of Schubert's "Dischoene Muellerin" was concisely stated in a note on the programme yesterday which read: "He [a young miller] goes borth as a travelling 'prentice and follows the course of a brook with which is holds converse. It leads him to another mill, where he takes service and where mill, where he takes service and where he falls deeply in love with the Lieut. You Rath returned to Germany.

OLDHAM-GOULD.

Draper was successful in depict. Rector of St. Luke's Takes Bride at Cathedral of St. John.

The wedding of Miss Emily Pierrepon: daughter of Mrs. James Henry Gould, daughter of Mrs. James Henry Gould, to the Rev. George Ashton Oldham, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, took place at noon yesterday in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The Rev. Dr.
Ernest M. Stires, rector of St. Thomas's Church, and Bishop David H. Greer were young creature seated "in a leafy glade" to digiting clerrymen.

Dest man.

Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present for the ceremony. There was no reception.

The Rev. and Mrs. Oldham will make their home in the historic Hamilton Grange, at one time the home of Alexander Hamilton, which for many years has been the rectory of St. Luke's Church.

Admiral Marshall's Daughter to Wed present instance, nevertheless he came so near it that his hand became crippled. His drawing in the "Flower Girl" is weak Boston, Jan. 14.—Rear Admiral William A. Marshall, U. S. N., retired, of the Hotel Charlesgate announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Henry Golden Dearth, "October Evening." ment of his daughter, Miss Enzabeth Henry Golden Bearth, October Evening.

Lawrence Marshall, to Philip Avery! It is a large canvas, too large in fact for Swords of Brookline, Harvard, 1903. Miss Marshall's aunt, Mrs. Hamilton Perkins able country and one that is peculiarly of Commonwealth avenue, was hostess at a small tea this afternoon for some of Miss Marshall's friends in honor of the engagement.

Henry Golden Bearth, October Evening.

It is a large canvas, too large in fact for swords and its subject, but it tells of a most agree-like subject, but it tells of a most agree letter is signed by twenty-six of the and council of the actors' associa-sand council of the actors' associa-Marshall's aunt. Mrs. Hamilton Perkins

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt gave a dinner last night at her home. 677 Fifth avenue.
During the evening there was music by Boxhorn's London society orchestra. Mrs. Harold Fries will give a dance toproration, which of Bosworth's give a dinner to-night at Sherry's, fol-January 20 and lowed by a theatre party, for their niece.

Mrs. William H. Hulburt will give a the dansant at Sherry's January Miss Marie Tailer, daughter of M Mrs. J. Lee Tailer, whose engagement was announced recently to S. Bryce Wing The third for this season of a series of subscription dances organized by Mrs. Walter Pulitzer and others will be given to-night in the music room of the Bilt-more. The series will be extended into

There will be another founders' meet-ing of the Paul Jones Club in the Della Robbia room of the Vanderbilt to-night.

goes to the Protestant Episcopal City Mis-sion, while St. Luke's Hospital receives $7.000 and $5,000 goes to St. Luke's Home for Aged Women. St. George's Church the production of serious plays men as Tolstoy, Ibsen, Hauptd Shaw.

eicher has been freed from Euphysical suppose production of the New Assembly Dances, organized by the way and in the New Assembly Dances, organized by the way and in the New York City Mission and Tract Society. h men as Tolstoy, 1986n, Flauptand Shaw.

Reicher has been freed from Euengagements by the war and is to take up the work he left off bout fifteen years ago, when he apin Ibsen's "Ghosts."

Society and the New York City Shasion and Tract Society.

HASSAN BEN ALI, who toured Europe and America with a troupe of Arabian foliable in Morristown.

Of the district nurses of Morristown.

of the district nurses of Morristown.

for probate yesterday in Brooklyn, it goes to the wife, Christiana Ail; a daughter and a sister. Under no contains himsel Under no circumstances Robbia room of the Vanderbilt to-night.

Robbia room of the Vanderbilt to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiborg and the Misses Wiborg are at 11 East Forty-fifth at Loyola Misses Wiborg and the Misses Wiborg are at 11 East Forty-fifth at Loyola Misses Wiborg are at 11 East Forty-fifth at Loyola Misses Wiborg are at 11 East Forty-fifth at Loyola Misses Wiborg are at 11 East Forty-fifth at Loyola Misses Wiborg are at 11 East Forty-fifth at Loyola Misses Wiborg are at 11 East Forty-fifth at Loyola Misses Wiborg are at 11 East Forty-fifth at Loyola Misses Wiborg are at

"LOVE WATCHES" AUTHOR DIES. ness career in the West. A wife and son survive him.

THE UNION LEAGUE

Bouguereau's Classic Work I

the Chief Feature of the Show.

The monthly exhibition of the Union

League Club is gently retrospective !

stand against anything agitating or provocative of discussion, for this winter

The lengths to which they have gone

nevertheless he came dow-and the flame from the brush fire in the valley counts. It is not told with that breadth of style that most painters assume when they are bringing new and

Mr. Dearth's brushes.

Among the other pieces are a very straightforward dog picture by Percival

WILLS AND APPRAISALS

SOPHIA FRANCES SCOTT, who left an estate of about $50,000, gave $40,000 to public institutions. The residuary estate

Gardner Symons, suitable perhaps for at least.

Arman de Caillavet, French Dram-

THE REV. RICHARD M. BENSON.

End Comes to Founder of the Cow-that the club committee has taken a commonly called to-day at Oxford. The Rev. Richard Meux Benson was educated at Christ Church, Oxford, and became a priest in 1849. He was vicar of Cowley for many years, and wrote number of books on religious subjects. James A. Sperry.

Church, and Bishop David H. Greer were the officiating clergymen.

ACTORS PROPOSE PLAN.

The bride. who was given away by her mother, wore a gown of white satin trimmed with duchess lace. Her veil of tulle was held by a wreath of orange blossoms. Her sister, Miss Mary Gould, who wore a costume of white cloth trimmed with fur an open letter sent yesterday to Marc Charles A. Schieren and Frederick W. Warster and for many years city editor of the Brooklyn Times, died yesterday on the Williamsburg the trimmed with duchess lace. Her veil of tulle was held by a wreath of orange blossoms. Her sister, Miss Mary Gould, who wore a costume of white cloth trimmed with fur and a hat to correspond, was the bride's only attendant.

In an open letter sent yesterday to Marc Charles A. Schieren and Frederick W. Charles A. Schieren Wurster and for many years city editor of the Brooklyn Times, died yesterday on the Brooklyn plaza of the Williamsburg served. the Grand Central depot to take a train for his country home at Marbledale, Conn.

He was born in New York girly decrease.

Served.

Among the subscribers present were Mr. and Mrs. William Whitingham Battle, Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax Ayres Mr. clasp for his country home at Marbledale, Conn. thing He was born in New York sixty-five years Union ago. He married a daughter of the late bridge Hollister, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Blair until the Peters estate sold out to a corporation three years ago, when he retired. He retained his connection with various banking institutions in Brooklyn and o banking institutions in Brooklyn and on Monday he came to the city to attend meetings of directorates. He was one of the founders and a former president of the Hanover Club. His wife survives

The Rev. Jesse Hill.

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 14.—The Rev. Jesse Hill, for the past seven years pastor of the Williston Congregational Church of this city, died to-day following an operation. His father was a Welsh miner, who labored in a Pennsylvania coal mine where the boy worked for some years picking slate. He studied nights and finally went to Oberlin College, where he was graduated. He held a pastorate in Pennsylvania and Ohio, coming here from Medina, Ohio. Three years ago Bowdoin College conferred the degree of doctor of divinity upon him. Dr. Hill.

LUNCHEON FOR DEBUTANTE. of doctor of divinity upon him. Dr. Hill, who was 46, is survived by a widow and glorious facts to the attention of a wait-ing world, but it nevertheless is an un-failingly poetic theme, potent again under Mr. Dearth's brushes. Jacob Hyman, 72, of 42 Sidney place, Brooklyn, who for many years conducted a clothing and jewelry business in lower New York city, died on Wednesday in the Jewieh Hospital. He came from Rus-sia in early life and within a short time Rousseau; an immense winter scene New embarked in the business on his own ac-count and retired twenty-five years ago with a large fortune. He was noted for his charities to struggling Jewish congregations. He was a bachelor.

Jacob Hyman.

James L. Martin.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Jan. 14 .- James Lorer Martin of Brattleboro, United States Dis-trict Judge for Vermont, died suddenly at a railroad station here to-day. Mr. Martin had been a Federal Judge for eight years and had charge of im-portant cases in New York as well as in He was 68 years old and was Bible graduated from the Albany Law School.

Frank W. Jenkins.

Frank W. Jenkins, 83, for fifty-two years a consulting engineer with the Henry R. Worthington Company, died yesterday at his home, 28 Tompkins place, West Thirty-ninth street, 8 P. M. Brooklyn. Two daughters survive him.

Robert B. Denny.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.
PARIS, Jan. 14.—Arman de Caillavet, a well known dramatist and for years a writer on the Figaro, is dead. He was a graduate of the New York University 15 years of age. His last work produced in the United States was "Love Watches."

William Ash.

William Ash of the law firm of Alexander & Ash of 92 William street, died yesterday at his home, 316 West 103d yesterday at his forty-third year. He was a graduate of the New York University law school and was one of the authors of "Annotated Greater New York Charter."

John Bryne, 75, a retired Brooklyn uilder, of 3208 Farragut road, Flatbush, died on Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William E. Burns, in Chicago, Ill. He was one of the organizers of St. Aucharacter. The soporific or academic quality of the paintings on display is so marked that one is forced to the opinion of the Society of St. John the Evangelist, the club committee has taken a taken a commonly called the Cowley Fathers, died by his wife, two sons and five daughters.

SOCIETY DANCES AT BILTMORE.

New Series of Events Is Begun With Well Known Patronesses.

The first of a new series of dances or ganized by Mrs. John Fiske, Mrs. Albert D. Ashforth, Mrs. Francis U. Stearns and James A. Sperry, a bridge commissioner in Brooklyn during the terms of Mayors harles A. Schieren and Frederick W. Receiving were the members of the organizing committee. There was general

Mr. and Mrs. Fergus Reid Mr and Mrs. Walter Cowperthwaite, Mr. an Mrs. Charles Vail, Mr. and Mrs. Norte Squier and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bebee,

SINGER TO REST THREE MONTHS. Mme, Schumann-Heink Cancels Epgagements After Breakdown.

Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink ha been compelled by ill health to cancel her engagements for the months of January, February, March and April. She left Chi-

LUNCHEON FOR DEBUTANTE. Mrs. Philip C. Sawyer Entertains for

Her Daughter. Mrs. Philip C. Sawyer gave a luncheon yesterday at her home, 109 East Seventy-eighth street, for her debutante daughter,

Miss Mildred Sawyer

Miss Mildred Sawyer.

Among the guests were the Misses
Marie Thayer, Frederika Peterson, Barbara Thaw, Eleanor Keep, Barbara Shedd, Emmalena Sizer, Susette Herter, Elise
Rice, Julia Gilbert, Margaret Stewart,
Gertrude Geer, Sylvia Holt, Katherine
Colby, Carola Warburg, Harriette Smith, Charlotte Strong, Theodora Dunham and Sylvia Hyde.

In New York To-day. Hamilton College Alumni, dinner, Hotel

Savoy, 7 P. M.
National Institute of Social Sciences, meeting, 3 P. M.; dinner, 7 P. M., Hotel Lecture by Prof. Jeremiah W. Jenks,

Judson Memorial Building, Washington Square South, 5 P. M. Schoolmasters Association of New York d Vicinity, dinner, University Club,

MARRIED.

WARREN SANFORD .- On Tuesday, Janu ary 12, 1915, Jeannette Westbrouck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Homer Sanford, to Charles Appleton Homer Sanford, to Charles Appleton Warren, both of Kingston, N. I. 'Rare and Beautiful Objects on View"

American Art Galleries

ON FREE VIEW 9 A. M. TO 6 P. M.

Beginning This Friday and continuing until the date of the UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC SALES

The Private Collection

Early English Portraits and Other Paintings

formed by the late F. A. G. Hood, Esq.

Dorset Square, London

including

"The Hon. Mrs. Bushell,"

Sir Henry Raeburn

AND WORKS BY Reynolds, Gilbert Stuart, Beechey (3), Opie (2), Ramsay, Cotes, Linnell, Peters, Lawrence, Lely, Coypel, Le Suer, Rigaud, Salvator Rosa, Van Goyen (2), Jan Steen, De Keyser, Cuyp, De Bray, De Troy, Van der Helst, and others.

TO BE SOLD

On Thursday Evening, January 21st, at 8:30 o'clock

Grand Ball Room of the Plaza

Antique and Modern Chinese & Japanese Bronzes

Rare Artistic Excellence TO BE SOLD AT THE American Art Galleries Thursday Afternoon,

January 21st, at 3 o'clock By Direction of the Girard Trust Company of Philadelphia Trustee under Agreement with the Late

Charles H. Cramp Philadelphia

The Private Collection of Mrs. Albert Tucker

Sharon, Connecticut, Antique Furniture

Sixteenth and Seventeenth Century Spanish, French, Italian and German, and Eighteenth Century English. Rugs, and other interesting Art Property.

TO BE SOLD AT THE American Art Galleries Monday Afternoon. January 25th, at 3:30 o'clock

Duc D'Avaray Collection

To be Sold by Direction of Madame Lefortier

An Extraordinary Collection

Beautiful Old Laces THIRTY-FIVE

17th and 18th Century Tapestries

Fine and costly specimens of Beauvais Renaissance, Brussels, Aubusson and other weaves.

Gold and Enamel Snuff Boxes, Eighteenth Century Painted Fans. Antique Bro-

Louis Quatorze and Louis Quinze Furniture

cades and Velvets.

In Petit Point and Tapestry Dessus De Porte and other Valuable Artistic Property which with the exception of eight items specifically noted in the catalogue as the personal property of Madame Lefortier are from the private collection

Duc D'Avaray,

And sent to this country to be sold because of the financial depression occasioned by the European war. DATES OF SALE

> JANUARY 22 & 23 at 3 o'clock

Friday & Saturday Afternoons

AT THE American Art Galleries

Utility and Fancy Laces and Miscellaneous Objects

TO BE SOLD AT THE

American Art Galleries

on Monday Afternoon January 25th, at 2:30 o'clock By direction of the Executors of the late

Mrs. Emilie de L. Havemeyer

INFORMATION WILL BE FURNISHED BY THE MANAGERS The sales will be conducted by MR. THOMAS E. KIRBY and his assistant, Mr. Otto Bernet, of the AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Managers

ILLUSTRATED AND OTHER CATALOGUES AND FURTHER

ON EXHIBITION TODAY

Anderson Galleries

Important Paintings

By Modern French Artists, consigned for unrestricted Public Sale by the Executors of the Estate of Henry A. Bateman of Baltimore, with some additions from other sources. Among the great Artists represented by fine examples are: Diaz Meissonier Baudry

Bonheur Dupre

Henner Rousseau Corot Daubigny Isabey Schreyer Decamps Jacque Thaulow Delacroix Lynch Troyon Exhibition open to the Public from 9

Richet

to 5 o'clock each day to the unrestricted Sale on FRIDAY EVENING. January 22, 1915,

At 8:15 o clock. Illustrated catalogues mailed free to intending buyers. The Anderson Galleries

Madison Avenue at Fortieth St. N. Y.

...... DIED.

BOGERT .- At New Brighton, Staten Island, Wednesday, January 13, Henrietta Eve-lina, daughter of the late Stephen Van Rensselaer and Amanda Strong Bogert. Funeral Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, at her late residence, 373 Henderson avenue.

AVANAGH .- On January 14. William R. beloved husband of Mary Cavanagh. Funeral from his late residence, 422 College avenue, Saturday, January 16, at 3 A. M., thence to the Church St. Rita, 145th street and College avenue. In-

DIED.

CHENEY.—On January 13, at her home, 400 Mariborough street, Boston, in her seventy-fourth year, Emeline, widow of Arthur Cheney and daughter of the late Dr. Winslow Lewis and Emeline Richards of Boston.

Funeral services on Saturday afternoon, January 16, at St. Mary's Church, South Marcharts, Conn. 42 School, South

Manchester, Conn., at 3 o'clock, follow-ing the service at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul's, Boston, at 10 o'clock Burial private at South Manchester. It is particularly requested that all flowers be omitted. CUSHMAN .-- On January 12, 1915, Maude Ritter, daughter of the late John Henry Hobart and Mary Huddart Cushman. Funeral services will be held at the Church of the Transfiguration, 1 East Twentyninth street, on Friday, January 15, at 11 A. M. Kindly omit flowers.

SRIFFIN .- At Elizabeth, N. J., on January 12. 1915. Catherine, widow of John Griffin and mother of the Rev. William A. Griffin of Seton Hail College and Hon. John J. Griffin, in her seventy-first Funeral from her late residence, 5 Monmouth road, Elmora Section, Elizabeth, on Saturday, January 18, at 9:30 A. M. Solemn high mass at St. Joseph's Church, Third avenue and Walnut street, Roselle, at 10 A. M. Interment in Mount Olivet Cemetery. HORWOOD.—At her late residence, 1191 Garden street, Hoboken, N. J., on Janu-ary 14, 1915, Mrs. Charlotte Louise Hor-wood, widow of Edward Henry Horwood. Notice of funeral hereafter. OHNSON.—Mary Lee, beloved wife of Nathan C. Johnson, Thursday evening.

January 14. Due notice of funeral will be given. SHASSER.—At St. Moritz, Switzerland, on Thursday, January 14, 1915, of pneu-monia following influenza, N. Melman

AN BOSKERCK .- Suddenly, of pneumonia, at Hackensack, N. J., January 13, 1915, Cornelius, son of the late L. J. Van Bos-kerek, in his sixty-third year.

AN WAGONER .- At Paterson, N. J., on Tuesday, January 12, 1915, Margaret Ann Demarest, beloved wife of Peter H. Van Wagoner, in her seventy-eighth year. Funeral services at her late residence, 19 North Fourth eirect, Paterson, N. J. of Friday, January 15, at 2 o'clock.

Funeral services at his late residence, corner of River and Anderson streets, Hackensack, N. J., on Saturday, Janu-ary 16, at 2:30 P. M.